

James 4:13–17 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.” <sup>14</sup> Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> But as it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.

James 4:13–17 New International Version (NIV)

Boasting About Tomorrow

<sup>13</sup> Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.” <sup>14</sup> Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, “If it is the Lord’s will, we will live and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> As it is, you boast in your arrogant schemes. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn’t do it, it is sin for them.

James 4:13–17 New Living Translation (NLT)

Warning about Self-Confidence

<sup>13</sup> Look here, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit.” <sup>14</sup> How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone. <sup>15</sup> What you ought to say is, “If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> Otherwise you are boasting about your own pretentious plans, and all such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup> Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

James 4:13–17 English Standard Version (ESV)

Boasting About Tomorrow

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit”—<sup>14</sup> yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> As it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.

James 4:13–17 Amplified Bible (AMP)

<sup>13</sup> Come now [and pay attention to this], you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and carry on our business and make a profit.” <sup>14</sup> <sup>[a]</sup> Yet you do not know [the least thing] <sup>[b]</sup> about what may happen in your life tomorrow. [What is secure in your life?] You are merely a vapor [like a puff of smoke or a wisp of steam from a cooking pot] that is visible for a little while and then vanishes [into thin air]. <sup>15</sup> Instead <sup>[c]</sup> you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and we will do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> But as it is, you boast [vainly] in your pretension and arrogance. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> So any person who knows what is right to do but does not do it, to him it is sin.
